<sup>1</sup> The breakdown according to cause of death gives deaths classified in 2005. This may include deaths in the preceding year whose cause was previously unknown. Some deaths in 2005 have not yet been classified. Consequently, subtotals for deaths owing to hostilities, accidents and illness may not add up to the total number of deaths in 2005. Data on fatality numbers for all DPKO missions were obtained from UN, DPKO, 'Fatalities by mission and incident type—as of December 29 2005', URL <<http://www.un.org/Depts/dpko/fatalities/fatal2.htm>>.

<sup>2</sup> For UN operations, the underlined country represents the country with the largest number of personnel deployed to the field. Data on countries participating in UN operations were obtained from United Nations, DPKO, 'UN mission's contributions by country', 31 Dec. 2005, URL <http://www.un.org/Depts/dpko/contributors/2005/dec2005\_5.pdf>.

<sup>3</sup> Total for the 17 operations listed in the table. Data on the number of personnel for all DPKO missions were obtained from UN, DPKO, 'Missions summary of military and police', 31 Dec. 2005, URL <http://www.un.org/Depts/dpko/contributors/2005/dec2005\_4.pdf>.

<sup>4</sup> Total for the costs of the 17 operations listed in the table. UNTSO and UNMOGIP are funded through the UN's regular budget and consequently should not suffer arrears. Data on budgets for all 17 operations were obtained from UN, DPKO, 'Background note on peacekeeping operations', 31 Dec. 2005, URL <<http://www.un.org/Depts/dpko/dpko/bnote.htm>>.

<sup>5</sup> UNTSO was established in May 1948 to assist the Mediator and the Truce Commission in supervising the observance of the truce in Palestine after the 1948 Arab–Israeli War. The mandate was maintained during 2005.

<sup>8</sup> UNMOGIP was established by SCR 91 (30 Mar. 1951) to replace the UN Commission for India and Pakistan. Its task is to supervise the ceasefire in Kashmir under the 1949 Karachi Agreement. A positive decision by the SC is required to terminate the mission.

<sup>9</sup> UN (note 6), p. 26.

<sup>11</sup> UNFICYP was established by SCR 186 (4 Mar. 1964) to prevent fighting between the Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot communities and to contribute to the maintenance and restoration of law and order. Since 1974 UNFICYP's mandate has included monitoring the ceasefire and maintaining a buffer zone between the 2 sides.

<sup>12</sup> SCR 1486 (11 June 2003) authorized the increase in the number of Civ. Pol. and SCR 1568 (22 Oct. 2004) reduced the authorized force level by 30% to 860 military personnel (including Mil. Obs).

<sup>14</sup> Budget includes a voluntary contribution amounting to one-third of the total cost from the Government of Cyprus and $6.5 million from the Government of Greece. Unpaid costs as of 31 Oct. 2005. UN, Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Operation in Cyprus, UN document S/2005/743, 29 Nov. 2005, para. 32.

<sup>15</sup> UNDOF was established after the 1973 October War under the Agreement on Disengagement and SCR 350 (31 May 1974), to maintain the ceasefire between Israel and Syria and to supervise the disengagement of Israeli and Syrian forces. The mandate was extended until 30 June 2006 by SCR 1648 (21 Dec. 2005).

- <sup>27</sup> UNOMIG was established by SCR 849 (9 July 1993) and SCR 858 (24 Aug. 1993). The mission's original mandate—to verify the ceasefire between the Georgian Government and the Abkhaz authorities—was invalidated by resumed fighting in Abkhazia in Sep. 1993, and UNOMIG was given an interim mandate to maintain contacts with both sides to the conflict and with Russian military contingents as well as to monitor and report on the situation. Following the signing of the 1994 Agreement on a Ceasefire and Separation of Forces, UNOMIG's mandate was expanded to include monitoring and verification of the implementation of the agreement of SCR 937 (27 July 1994). The present mandate was renewed until 31 Mar. 2006 by SCR 1656 (31 Jan. 2006).
- <sup>28</sup> SCR 937 (21 July 1994) authorized the increase in the number of Mil. Obs and SCR 1494 (30 July 2003) authorized the addition of a Civ. Pol. component of up to 20 officers.
- <sup>29</sup> The mission is supported by 187 locally recruited staff members and 2 UNVs.

- <sup>35</sup> UNAMSIL was established by SCR 1270 (22 Oct. 1999) following the signing of the Lomé Peace Agreement between the Sierra Leone Government and the Revolutionary United Front (RUF) on 7 July 1999. SCR 1346 (30 Mar. 2001) revised the mission's mandate to that of assisting the Sierra Leone Government's efforts to extend its authority, to restore law and order in the country, to promote the resumption of DDR activities and to assist in the anticipated elections. The mission was closed in Dec. 2005, to be succeeded by UNIOSIL in Jan. 2006.
- <sup>36</sup> SCR 1537 (30 Mar. 2004) authorized the stated level of the mission's residual presence in preparation for withdrawal in Dec. 2005.
- <sup>37</sup> The mission is supported by 369 locally recruited staff members and 83 UNVs.

- <sup>39</sup> MONUC was established by SCR 1279 (30 Nov. 1999). SCR 1291 (24 Feb. 2000) mandated MONUC to monitor the implementation of the Ceasefire Agreement, to supervise and verify the disengagement of forces, to monitor human rights violations and to facilitate the provision of humanitarian assistance. SCR 1493 (28 July 2003) revised the mandate to a Chapter VII mandate, authorizing the mission to use 'all necessary means' to fulfil its tasks. In 2004 SCR 1565 (1 Oct. 2004) revised the mission's mandate to deploy and maintain a presence in key areas of potential volatility, to cooperate with ONUB to monitor and prevent the movement of combatants and arms across shared borders, to ensure the protection of civilians and UN staff and facilities, to facilitate the DDR process and to assist in the successful completion of the electoral process. SCR 1635 (28 Oct. 2005) extended MONUC's mandate to Sep. 2006.

<sup>40</sup> SCR 1565 (1 Oct. 2004) authorized the expansion of military personnel to 16 700 and SCR 1621 (6 Sep. 2005) authorized the increase in Civ. Pol. personnel.
